UCSO Meeting October 14th, 2009

2:05 Meeting initiated

2:05-2:15 Introductions. Organizations in attendance stood up to give a brief statement of their organization and its goals.

2:15-2:17 Kim informs meeting attendees of the upcoming October Carnival. Kim presents the information on behalf of CAB. It was indicated that there is no deadline determined for the registration. Kim presents a brief synopsis of the "street team" information on behalf of the American Bank Center representative Eric Jaramillo. Kim requests that any questions concerning the "street team" be directed towards her for the time being.

2:17 Clari indicated her UCSO office hours for the semester.

2:18 Clari presents information on the Texas Leadership Round-Up in Arlington.

2:21 Kim requests volunteers for the 13th annual student leadership conference on Saturday November 7th. Also requests volunteers for the Islander Lights event.

2:22 Kim offers an encouraging reminder concerning Homecoming week, scheduled February 2nd through 7th.

2:23 Eric Jaramillo arrives to present American Bank Center "street team" information. Describes it as an extension of the ABC marketing team, and as a grassroots organization of volunteers to promote shows. Requests 5-12 people to help with General Admission at shows, and offers free tickets to volunteers who help. Eric stresses the need for enthusiastic volunteers and offers signed memorabilia for student organization raffles.

2:37 Question from meeting attendee concerning the discretionary use of time that is to be dedicated to a "street team" volunteer.

2:38 Eric assures the question that "street team" volunteers are bound to no set amount of time that they choose to dedicate to any event.

2:40 Clari indicated that there is no 'old business' for the meeting to handle and opens the floor for any open announcements.

2:41 CIA (Christians in Action) announces a Zombies v. Humans event scheduled for Monday @10:00. Refers anyone interested to check out the national events website at humansvszombies.com.
